MEMORANDUM FOR: THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON TRAINING

Subject: Report on Measures Taken to Ensure Compliance with NSAM 283

References: a. NSAM 283
b. Letter-Ambassador Palmer to Major Gen Anthis, 31 July 1964, requesting Report to Subcommittee on Training on above subject
c. SACSA-M 561-64, 1 Sept 1964, Memorandum For The Subcommittee on Training, subject as above

1. Reference a requires the Special Group (CI) to report the President periodically upon the degree to which the training objectives therein are being achieved.
2. Reference b requested a report, which was provided by reference c, as an input to an action for the Special Group
1) aimed at compliance with the above requirement.
3. Enclosure 3 of reference c provided 6 copies of "MJCS
-64 subject: Development Status of Military Counterinsurgency Programs, including Counterguerrilla Forces". That publication has been superseded by an updated version issued as MJCS 136-64, dated 18 September 1964, six copies of which are enclosed.
The earlier superseded version should be destroyed.
4. Recommend that a meeting of the Subcommittee on Training be scheduled at an early date to review the reports of the
